

House Resolution No. 2698

Whereas, it is with utmost respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their daily legislative endeavors in order to recognize those Show-Me State residents who truly embody the concept of "Outstanding Missourian" through their deeds and achievements; and

Whereas, the Honorable Lloyd Daniel of Kansas City, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as an educator, activist, politician, and community development specialist; and

Whereas, on May 1, 2007, Lloyd Daniel will meet with state legislators in the Missouri House of Representatives to receive well-deserved honors and accolades for the exemplary role he has performed in Missouri as a community leader; and

Whereas, Lloyd Daniel prepared for his lifelong endeavors by graduating from Paseo High School; the University of Kansas, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree; and the University of Connecticut, where he earned a Master's degree; and

Whereas, Lloyd Daniel was elected to the Missouri House of Representatives in 1994, 1996, and 1998, during which time his primary focus was on legislation designed to move welfare recipients into jobs; and

Whereas, Lloyd Daniel also has distinguished himself as a professor at Penn Valley Community College, the University of Missouri-Kansas City, and the National In-Service Teacher Education Program of Grenada, West Indies; as a board member of the Missouri Cultural Trust Fund; and as an Assistant Director of the Missouri Department of Economic Development who oversaw small business development, cultural tourism, and trade between Missouri, Africa, and the Caribbean; and

Whereas, a poet who has appeared on National Public Radio and the National Black Radio Network, Lloyd Daniel is the author of "Radio Free America", "Objective Reality", and "Liberation Education: A Strategy for the 21st Century":

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Lloyd Daniel as an "Outstanding Missourian" and to extend to him this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capitol on May 1, 2007, for special recognition as a guest in the House Chamber; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of "Outstanding Missourian" Lloyd Daniel of Kansas City, Missouri.
